The physical body is a resonating matrix of information in the biological field. According to Matrix energetics philosophy, the patterns within the resonating matrix may become altered from physical or emotional injury. These disruptions can result in embedded perceptions or habits that can block a person from reaching a state of prosperity, health, happiness and various constructive situations. Matrix Energetics works to get rid of blockages, transfer these ingrained patterns and change core beliefs in order to allow the individual to achieve their goals so as create the sort of life and quality of life desired.

Matrix Energetics practitioners think that the limitations are the basis of a person's issues and that the healing system of Matrix Energetics can immediately get rid of these limitations. This particular healing system is thought to get rid of the causes of both chronic and temporary issues like fibromyalgia, emotional trauma, headaches, muscle spasms and scoliosis amongst others.

The Matrix Energetics system is intended to stand alone. Numerous practitioners use it to enhance several healing techniques even if it does not have to be at all combined with whichever other technique. A single session with a Matrix Energetics practitioner is capable of changing the belief system of the client and can change her or his beliefs regarding the structure of reality, the nature of disease and the healing process. Commonly, recipients can feel a wave pass all through their bodies in view of the fact that their previous view of realism is transformed and this is where the Matrix Energetics system enters into the realm of quantum physics.

Space and time are not a part of actuality at the quantum level. An individual's consciousness could affect how subatomic particles behave, according to the quantum theory. Since the universe is interconnected with quanta, or tiny wave particles of information, which could be transferred at a rate faster than the speed of light, these quanta could appear everywhere at the same time and also move backward or forward in time. An individual's consciousness can affect these quanta to transform emotions and physical matter. This particular information and these views have been incorporated into the Matrix Energetics treatments and are responsible for the changes that occur on the cellular level in the individual.
